MR. F. B. KELLEWAY

Mr. Frederick Bertie KELLEWAY died at his home, 102, Arthur-street on Friday, at the age of 58.

Mr. KELLEWAY, a naval pensioner, had been ill for some 4 1/2 years. He had been in the Royal Navy for 22 years serving in the Boxer Rising and was on board H.M.S. Agincourt during the Battle of Jutland. He was gardener to the late Admiral Sir A. GOUGH CALTHORPE at Portsmouth, when he was commander in chief, and later worked for Admiral CALTHORPE at Woodlands Vale, Ryde, until 1935.

He leaves a widow, three sons and a daughter.

The funeral took place at the Ryde Cemetery yesterday afternoon, the Rev. E. S. WILLIAMSON officiating.

The mourners were the widow, Mr. B. Y. KELLEWAY, Mr. A. R. KELLEWAY and Mr. A. F. KELLEWAY (sons), Miss M. KELLEWAY (daughter), Mr. Ernest KELLEWAY and Mr.

Edward KELLEWAY (brothers), Mr. W. LANE, Mr. T. LANE, Mr. G. LANE (brothers-in-law), Mrs. SHARMAN (sister-in-law), Mrs. J. BEALES (sister-in-law), Mrs. W. B. LANE (mother-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. A. HAYDEN (brother-in-law and sister), Mr. L. KELLEWAY (nephew).

Among the wreaths was one from the Hon. Mrs. WILSON HEATHCOTE, sister of the late Admiral Sir GOUGH CALTHORPE.
