

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 5th September 1940

Obituary
MRS. E. H. KEMP

The death of Mrs. Emily Harriet KEMP occurred at her home, 38, George-street, Ryde, last week.

Mrs. KEMP, who was 74, was a native of Ryde, the wife of Mr. S. KEMP, an employee of Messrs. DALLIMORE's bakers.

She was one of the oldest members of the Baptist church, with which she had been connected for 59 years, and she took a great interest in the work of the church. She also belonged to the Women's Section of the British Legion.

Besides her husband she leaves two sons and a daughter, another son, Lieut. Douglas KEMP, having been killed in the last war after receiving the Military Cross.

The funeral was at the George-street Baptist Church on Saturday, interment following at the cemetery. The Rev. P. Franklin CHAMBERS officiated.

The mourners were Mr. S. KEMP (husband), Miss MATHEWS (daughter), Mr. H. HAYDEN (brother), Mr. and Mrs. F. RIDER (brother-in-law and sister), and many friends. Mr. Stanley KEMP and Mr. Laurence KEMP (sons) were unable to be present at the service.

Among the many wreaths received were those from the members of the Baptist Church and the Women's Section of the British Legion.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Jenny Stay
Margaret Truckel