

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 2nd October 1976

Mrs. M. R. KEY. – The funeral service took place at Ryde United Reform Church, Haylands, on Thursday for Mrs. May Rosetta KEY, aged 90, of Russett House, Orchard Gardens, St. John's Hill, Ryde, who died at St. Mary's Hospital Newport, on Sunday. Born and educated in Norfolk, she came to the Island 54 years ago. Mrs KEY was the widow of Mr. George Norman KEY, who kept a butcher's business in Ryde High Street until his death in 1943. KEY and Sons is now run by the eldest of her three sons, Mr. Norman George KEY. She also leaves two daughters. The Rev. D. COX officiated at the service which was followed by interment at Asheys Cemetery.

Messrs. H. V. TAYLOR and Son made the arrangements.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Janette Gregson