

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1847. folio 33. page 58.
Address: 30 Holls-lane, Norwich, Norfolk.

Jane KEY. Head. Wid. 51. Norwich, Norfolk.

Frederick KEY. Son. S. 24. Baker. Norwich, Norfolk.

Edith KEY. Dau. S. 22. Starch Packer. Norwich, Norfolk.

George KEY. Son. S. 19. Butcher. Norwich, Norfolk.

Hannah KEY. Dau. S. 17. Mustard Packer. Norwich, Norfolk.

Donald KEY. Son. 15. Machine Minder app. Norwich, Norfolk.

Ethel KEY. Dau. 12. Norwich, Norfolk.

Lily KEY. Dau. 10. Norwich, Norfolk.

Alfred BULLOCK. Lodger. S. 42. Horse Breaker Groom (own account). Redgrave, Suffolk.

MARRIAGE: 4th ¼ 1910 (General Registrars ref: Eastbourne Reg Dist. Vol 2B. Page 174)
George N. KEY & May R. WILKINSON

In 1911 George was living at 6 Battery Gardens, Ryde, Sussex, with his wife May. His occupation was given as Butcher Manager.

1933 REGISTER OF ELECTORS - 1 Nelson-street, Ryde
KEY George Norman
KEY May Rosetta

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Sat 27th February 1943

Tradesman's Death.---Mr. George Norman KEY, who died at Marston, Argyle-street, on Friday week, aged 61, had for several years been a much respected local business man. He passed away after a painful illness borne with great fortitude. He came to Ryde about 20 years ago as an employee of a meat company, and about four years ago, in partnership with his son, Mr. N. G. KEY, established a butcher's business in upper High-street. He was hon. treasurer of the Ryde Butchers' Buying Committee and a member of the I.W. Butchers' Association. A keen bowler he was a member of the local club and of Ryde Town Club.

Sincere sympathy is felt with the bereaved family. His son Petty Officer I. W. KEY, R.N. was killed in action on convoy work in the Mediteranean in 1941.

The remains were cremated at Southampton on Monday. Those present were Messrs. N. G. and P. and Artificer L. KEY, R.N. (sons), 2nd-Lieut. J. PLUMBER and Petty Officer R. CALVERLEY, R.N. (sons-in-law). There were no flowers.

---Mrs. G. KEY and family express their sincere thanks to the Rev. F. H. ROLPH, Mrs. ASHFIELD, and many kind friends for the sympathy shown in their bereavement. Will they please accept this as the only acknowledgment.
