

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 27th February 1941

Death Notice

KING. - On February 17th, at a Ryde Nursing Home, Wallace Tom KING, late of 17, Dover Street, Ryde, aged 60.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 27th February 1941

MR. W. T. KING

Mr. Wallace Tom KING, of 17, Dover Street, Ryde, died at a Ryde Nursing home last week at the age of 60. He was formerly a traveller, but for some years had suffered from paralysis. He had been in Ryde for about 20 years and was known and liked by many in the town. Death followed a stroke from which he never regained consciousness. Two daughters are left.

The funeral service was at the cemetery chapel on Thursday afternoon, the Rev. L.M. St. ALPHONSE officiating. The mourners were Miss S. KING and Miss J. KING (daughters), Mr. and Mrs. P. KING (brother and sister-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. A. MARVIN (brother-in-law and sister).

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Jenny Stay
Margaret Truckel