ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 17th April 1937

OBITUARY.--The funeral of Mrs. Emily KINGMAN, of Rose Cottage, Marlborough-road, who died on March 25th, took place last week, the first part of the service being held in St. John's Church. The Rev. E. E. M. GREEN (incumbent of St. James's Church) officiated and gave an address. Miss WARDROPER presided at the organ and played "O rest in the Lord" as the cortege entered the church, and the Dead March in "Saul" at the close. The hymns sung were "Abide with me" and "On the resurrection morning." The mourners were Mrs. STEPHENS (daughter), Mr. A. KINGMAN (son), Mrs. JONES (sister), Miss HAWKINS, Mrs. KILTY, Mrs. KINGMAN (daughter-in-law), and Mr. W. KINGMAN (grandson). Among others at the church were the Mayor and Mayoress (Major and Mrs. DENNIS), Dr. G. A. UPCOTT GILL, the Rev. A. WARDROPER, Miss BROADBENT, Mrs. PRATT, Mrs. MUNRO, Mrs. WEBB, Mrs. JOLIFFE, Mrs. MOORMAN, Mrs. COOPER and daughter, and Miss COOKE, Mrs. ROSE, senior, Mrs. ROSE, junior, Mrs. REASON, Mrs. NASH WHITTINGTON, Mrs. BOLTON, and Mrs. BRIDLE. Among the floral tributes was a lovely cross of lilies from Dr. G. UPCOTT GILL and a wreath from St. James's Church Guild.

- Mrs. STEPHENS wishes to express her grateful appreciation to all those who sent letters of sympathy and floral tributes, and especially Dr. G. UPCOTT GILL for all his many kindnesses to her mother and for his unfailing attention to her for four years.
