

Presentation to Blind Organist. – On Saturday the Rev. S. G. PHILLIPS (Congregational Church) presented a gift, subscribed to by members and friends of the Week's Road Church, to Miss Ada LANDER, of 25 Week's Road, as a token of appreciation of her 30 years' service as organist. In making the presentation, Mr. PHILLIPS said that although handicapped by being blind. Miss LANDER had attended the church for 30 years in all sorts of weather, and not only was that an example to those who were able-bodied but it also gave hope to other sightless people who might think the world had no use for them.

Mr. TAYLOR, Mrs. PALMER LEWIS, Miss I. SAUNDERS, Miss HENRY, and Pastor W. ATTRILL also spoke in appreciation of Miss LANDER's services, which had involved the memorising of tunes and the number of verses in some 1200 hymns. Miss LANDER expressed her appreciation of the gift and said she hoped to continue to serve the church to the best of her ability.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Alison Lockey