MR. H. F. C. LANDER

The funeral took place on Monday at Southampton Crematorium, following his death the previous Thursday, of Mr. Henry Cornelius Field LANDER, aged 71, of Woodham Lodge, West Hill- Road, Ryde.

A highly respected tradesman, Mr. LANDER conducted a grocery business in Park-Road for many years but retired two years ago on health grounds. His son, Mr. Hugh LANDER, succeeded him. The oldest of local organists, he had, for 30 years, accompanied the services at St. Thomas' Church, and was only absent once during that time. Keenly interested in the I.W. Musical Festival, he regularly did duty as a steward. During the second world war he was a member of the Fire Guard organisation. Sympathy is felt with his wife, who is well-known for her prominent work in public life, and his son.

A service at Southampton was conducted by the resident chaplain. The family mourners were Mrs. C.E. LANDER (widow), Mr. Hugh LANDER (son), Messrs. Frederick and A.E.R. RUSSELL (brothers-in-law), and Mrs. EDE.
