DEATH AND FUNERAL OF MRS. M. G. LANGDON.

We deeply regret to have to record the death of Mrs. M. G. LANGDON, a highly respected resident of Ryde, which took place at her house in Player-street, on Monday, after a most painful illness, at the age of 67. Subsequently to the death of her husband, under very painful circumstances, exactly 18 years ago today (Saturday), she carried on his building business and brought up a large family, all of whom are occupying honourable positions in life.

The funeral took place on Thursday at the Ryde Cemetery, amid very many demonstrations of great regard. The burial office was sung in All Saints' Church, of the guild of which church deceased was a member. The Vicar (the Rev. J. SHEARME) read the opening sentences, the Rev. J. Carpenter

TURNER the lesson, and the Rev. H. C. ANSTEY the prayers. The Psalm Domine refugium and the Hymns "Now the labourer's task is o'er" and "Peace, perfect peace" were sung. The mourners were Messrs. Frank LANGDON, C. LANGDON, H. LANGDON, Fred LANGDON, and James LANGDON (sons); Mr. H. W. LEVENS and Major ELLERY (sons-in-law); Mr. W. NEWMAN (brother); Mr. W. BROOK and Mr. Herbert LANGDON (brothers-in-law); Mr. A. W. NEWMAN (nephew); Mr. J. W. LANGDON, Mr. E. R. RATCLIFFE, and Mr. Frank BUTT. There were also present in the church Dr. DAVEY, J.P., the Rev. W. M. CAMERON, Mr. W. E. RATCLIFFE, Ald. ELLERY, Lieut.-Col. And the Misses DASHWOOD, Mr. W. H. RIDDETT, J.P., Mr. and Mrs. G. M. VAUGHAN, Mr. H. J. OSBORNE, Mr. J. C. MUNDELL, Miss WRIGHT, Miss MARVIN, and Mrs. LOCKE. At the Cemetery there were also present Capt. H. SWEETMAN, Mr. T. F. ELLERY, and Mr. Leonard CHIVERTON. The Vicar read the sentences of committal and the Benediction at the grave-side.

The following is a list of the many floral tributes which were all most beautiful: "From her sorrowing children"; "From her devoted and bereaved Pollie"; "from her loving grandchildren"; "In affectionate remembrance and with deep sympathy from all at West Hill"; "In kind remembrance from Mr. and Mrs. W.
