

OBITUARY.- Many of the older attendants at St. Michael's and All Angels' Church will read with much regret in our obituary column the notice of the death of Miss LE GRAND, which occurred on Sunday last. Miss LE GRAND's family took part in the early development of Ryde, but for many years she had been associated as a loved friend and companion with the MARVIN family. But she had been a great sufferer, and it is truly wonderful that her frail form should have withstood the assaults of disease for so long a time. We need hardly say that much sympathy is felt with Miss MARVIN, who must feel keenly the loss of her friend, and who is herself somewhat of a sufferer.
