

MARRIAGE: 1910 (General Registrars ref: Warrington Reg Dist. Vol 8C. Page 365)
George W. LEE & Mabel W. MARROW

In 1911 George was living at 101 Kimberley-street, Warrington, with his wife Mabel, and his 2 days old daughter (no name). He was a skilled Iron Worker, born Warrington, Lancs. Mabel was born Willdesford, Lancs.

1933 REGISTER OF ELECTORS - 2 Surrey-street, Ryde
LEE George
LEE Mable

1935 KELLY's DIRECTORY of Ryde & Neighbourhood - pages 68 & 121
LEE George Worrall, 22 Southfield Gardens, Haylands, Ryde, IW.

1947 REGISTER OF ELECTORS - 14 Daniel-street, Ryde
LEE George W.
LEE Mabel W.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 29th December 1955

MR. G. W. LEE.

Employed by Ryde Corporation for many years as a beach inspector, Mr. George Worrall LEE, of 14 Daniel Street, died on Tuesday last week aged 69 at St. Mary's Hospital, Newport, after a long illness.

The funeral was on Friday, The Rev. Cledwyn WOOD conducting a service at Garfield Road Methodist Church. Mr. H. L. BRADING was at the organ. The hymns were "My Faith Looks up to Thee," and "Abide With Me." Interment followed at Ryde Cemetery. Family mourners included Mrs. W. LEE, widow, and Mr. and Mrs. E. GROUNDSELL, son-in-law and daughter. Ryde Corporation representatives were in church. Among the floral tributes were those from Mr. LEE's workmates, and outdoor staff and members of the Ryde branch, the National Union of General and Municipal Workers.

Messrs. H. V. TAYLOR and Son made the funeral arrangements.
