Death of Mrs. H. LEEK. - Mrs. Alice Agnes LEEK, a much esteemed resident died at Sylvia Cottage, Newnham-road, on Friday week, aged 70. She was the wife of Mr. Harry LEEK, the groundsman at the Corporation Bowling green on Ryde Esplanade, and much sympathy has been extended to him and his two sons. Mrs. LEEK had lived here in the same house since her marriage 45 years ago. She had been ill for three years.

The Rev. C. HEALD took the funeral service at the cemetery on Tuesday. The mourners were: Mr. H. LEEK (husband), Mr. A. W. LEEK (grandson, representing Mr. W. H. G. LEEK, son), Mr. A. E. LEEK (son), Mr. G. WATSON (brother), Mesdames D. HAYES, E. JACOBS, L. SHORE, and R. CHAMBERS (nieces), Mr. R. BUTT (brother-in-law), Mrs. W. and Mr. A. BRONWIN (cousins). Others present were Mr. W. A. CHRISTY, C.C. (representing the Mayor of Ryde), and Mrs. CHRISTY, Mrs. YEATES, Mrs. JENKINSON, and Mr. B. GOMMES (Ryde Bowling Club). The grave was lined with evergreen, and the beautiful flowers included a token from Ryde Bowling Club.

Mr. H. LEEK and sons express sincere thanks to Dr. H. SUTHERLAND and Nurse THOMPSON for their devoted attention and to friends for their sympathetic help, messages, and flowers. Will they please accept this, the only acknowledgement.
