

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 27th May 1922

AGED RESIDENT'S DEATH. - We regret to record the death of one of the oldest parishioners of All Saints, Mrs LOCKIE, 36 Argyle-street, who expired at the great age of 91. She had lived at that address for 47 years and was an earnest churchwoman and much respected. The funeral took place on Thursday the service being conducted by the Vicar (Rev. H. Le FLEMING). The deceased's daughter was chief mourner and Mr A. PIGOU and Miss PIGOU attended as a mark of respect to an aged parishioner. There were several floral tokens.
