ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Sat 4th June 1892

THE LATE MISS LORING.---Our obituary records the death, on the 27th ult., of Miss LORING, a lady who had resided here for many years, and was held in very high esteem by all classes of the inhabitants of Ryde. She belonged to a celebrated family, and had many friends and connections here.

The funeral of the deceased lady took place on Wednesday last. The coffin was of polished oak, with brass furniture and plate. The latter was engraved

GEORGIANA EUSTATIA LORING

Died May 27th, 1892

Aged 70 years.

The mourners were the Rev LORING (brother), Mr. VAUX and Mr. LORING (nephews), Captain JELLICOE, Dr. DAVEY, and the servants from Westbury and Stonelands. The funeral cortege, consisting of a hearse and four carriages, proceeded to Ryde Parish Church, where the first part of the service was performed by the Vicar of Ryde, the Rev. John SHEARME. The coffin was then conveyed to the Cemetery, at Binstead, where the interment took place. A large number of floral tributes were sent.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. C. LANGDON.

NB: We have noted the discrepancy in the dates 27th & 28th in the above newspaper reports, they both should have read "27th".
