DEATH OF MR. ALFRED MILLER.---We regret to record the death on Wednesday of Mr. Alfred MILLER, of Smith Villa, Park-road, in his 85th year. Although born at Nottingham deceased had resided in the borough for over 60 years and had held the respect and esteem of all with whom he did business or came in contact. For many years he was in business in the High-street as a tailor and outfitter. In earlier years he prominently identified himself with liberalism. He was a member of the Bowling Club and of the Winter Bowls Club, and took a very active part in the game until failing health compelled his retirement two years ago. Despite his infirmity his interest remained as keen as ever and he was a regular spectator, watching the play from his bath-chair at the bankside. Of a very retiring and unassuming nature he had a charming personality in which courtesy and kindness were strong features.

His wife predeceased him about 20 years ago and three daughters mourn his passing, two of whom, resident in the town, have been unsparing in their devoted attention to him.

The funeral takes place this (Saturday) afternoon, the first part of the service being held at the Congregational Church, where he was a regular worshipper.
