

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 19th July 1919

EX-SOLDIER'S DEATH.- After much suffering, the death occurred at Portsmouth Hospital on July 7th, of Mr. G. H. MITCHELL, son of Mr. Walter MITCHELL, of Haylands, as a result of a fractured skull, received whilst serving in France, in December, 1917.

He bore a most exemplary character, and was beloved by all who knew him. The interment took place at Asheys on Saturday, when a number of floral tokens were sent by his many friends.
