ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thurs 9th June 1938.

MR. F. MUNDY.

A popular member of the Vectis Boating and Fishing Club and well-known in Ryde where he had followed the occupation of dairyman for many years, Mr. Frank MUNDY, of Ivy Lodge, George Street, Ryde passed away in his sloop on Thursday at the age of 64. He had suffered a long illness, borne with fine courage. Deep sympathy is extended to the widow and two sons who are left.

THE FUNERAL OF MR. FRANK MUNDY,

...of Ivy Lodge, George-street, took place on Saturday. The first part of the service was held in the Garfield-road Methodist Church. The Rev. A.G. LLOYD officiated, and the mourners were Messrs. George and Gordon MUNDY (sons), W. and A. MUNDY (brothers), and A. MEREDITH (brother-in-law). The Vectis Boating and Fishing Club, of which deceased was a member, was represented by Messrs. G. SWAIN, F.W. DOWDELL, and L.C. TANCOCK (hon. Secretary). There was a floral tribute from the Vectis Boating and Fishing Club.
