THE FUNERAL – of the late Harry NEW, who died after a very long illness at Swanmore road on Friday last, at the early age of 22 years, took place at the Ryde Cemetery on Monday, and was attended by many friends, including members of the Wesleyan Church and choir. The service was conducted by the Rev. W. SARGINSON, and the hymn “Peace, perfect peace” was sung. Many choice wreaths were sent, including tokens from his father, mother, and sisters, Mabel and Florrie, Ethel and Will, his aunts at Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Fred KING, E. and J. WOODFORD, Mr. and Mrs. BULL and family, Mr. GOSDEN, Oscar BRADING and Harry LODER, members of the Young Men’s Bible Class, members of the Wesleyan Chapel choir, Wesleyan Methodist Society Class, Seaview Christian Endeavour, and his employer and fellow workers.
