MR A. H. NEWMAN

Many people will learn with regret of the death of Mr. Albert Hollis NEWMAN, aged 68, a retired postman, which took place at his home "Clydesdale," Simeon Street on Friday morning. He had been in failing health for some time, but was only taken seriously ill on the day before he died. He had been the village postman at Havenstreet for a great number of years, and retired from the service eight years ago. A member of the Ryde Social Club, Mr. NEWMAN was known to a wide circle of friends to whom the news of his death will come as a shock.

The Rev. A. W. H. HARLOW (assistant Priest at All Saints') officiated at the funeral which took place on Tuesday afternoon. The mourners were Mr. V. JONES (half-brother), Capt. H. ALSOP, Mr. B. EVANS, Mr. A. BARTLETT and Mr. G. CASS.

Among those present at the cemetery were Mr. WEEKS, J.P., and Mr. C. GAWN (representing the Ryde G.P.O.), and the following retired post office workers: Messrs. G. GRIFFIN, E. JENVEY, A. JOLLIFFE, E. FAIRALL and A. SALE.

Among the choice floral tributes which covered the grave were those from the Head Postmaster and Staff of the Head Post Office, Ryde, the Ryde Social Club, Friends of the Simeon Arms and Capt. H. and Mrs. ALSOP.

NB: We have noted the spelling error of the name Elise on the 1901 census
