SUDDEN DEATH

On Sunday evening Mr. George Jennings NEWNHAM, of Union-road, one of the Licensed town porters, died very suddenly. He went with his wife, (to whom he was only married at Christmas) to take tea with his mother and sister, who live in St. Thomas's-street. They stayed to supper. After that meal the deceased went out for a short time, and returning remarked, "Oh dear, how cold it is!" He leaned across the table and almost immediately expired. The poor man had been suffering for some time from heart disease, and had not been able to follow his avocation for six weeks, but on Sunday said he felt better, and should go back to his work. As his medical attendant, Dr. PLETTS, could certify as to the cause of death, no inquest will be held.
