

MARRIAGE: Dec ¼ 1906 (General Registrars ref: Marylebone Reg Dist. Vol 1A. Page 1171)
Frederic ODDIN-TAYLOR & Maud Octavia ROWDEN

In 1911 Maud was living in Norwich, Norfolk, with her husband (Solicitor), and three servants.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 25th May 1933

OBITUARY
MRS. M. ODDIN-TAYLOR

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Maud ODDIN-TAYLOR, which occurred at her residence, 6 Wood Street, early on Thursday morning last after a long illness. The widow of Mr. F. ODDIN-TAYLOR, of St Ethelbert's, Norwich, and the youngest daughter of the late Mr. Francis ROWDEN, Barrister-at-law, of Lincolns Inn, deceased had lived at Ryde for a great many years, formerly in the Swanmore district. She was a loyal member of St. Michael's Church.

The funeral took place on Saturday at St. Michael's Church. Requiem Mass was sung at 9.30 a.m., the funeral service being held in the afternoon, the Rev. A. C. DURHAM (Vicar) officiating. The hymn "The King of Love my Shepherd is," which had been chosen by the deceased herself, was sung. The interment followed at the Ryde Cemetery. The principal mourners were Miss ROWDEN (sister), Mr. George STOCKS and Miss STOCKS, and Miss JOHNSON (nurse).

Among those present were Miss READY, Miss Frances READY, Miss Edith ALLEN, and Miss WEBB.

A very beautiful collection of wreaths and crosses from the family and friends were placed on the grave.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Kate MacDonell