

1881 CENSUS: RG11/674. Folio 105. Page 20.
Address: 23 Maud-road, Camberwell, Surrey.

William C. PACKHAM. Head. Widr. 38. Commercial Traveller. Tunbridge Wells, Kent.

William J. PACKHAM. Son. Un. 15. Stationer's Clerk (Distiller). Kentish Town, Middx.

Charles J. PACKHAM. Son. 9. Scholar. Camberwell, Surrey.

Lilly PACKHAM. Dau. 4. Scholar. Camberwell, Surrey.

Annie L. LONGMAN. House Keeper. Un. 25. Housekeeper. United States.

Rose WOOD. Serv. Un. 25. General Servant. Colchester, Essex.

MARRIAGE: 20th April 1881 at All Saints' Church, Ryde

William Charles PACKHAM. 38. Widower. (father: William PACKHAM)
& Laura Annie LONGMAN. 26. Spinster. (father: William LONGMAN)

1891 CENSUS: RG12/1359. Folio 86. Page 4.

Address: 9 Knighton Villas, High-road, Woodford, Essex.

Will Chas PACKHAM. Head. M. 49. Clerk. Tunbridge Wells, Kent.

Laura A. PACKHAM. Wife. M. 35. Morris Town, America.

Lilly Emma PACKHAM. Dau. S. 15. Scholar. Peckham, Surrey.

Alice Eva PACKHAM. Dau. 9. Scholar. Camberwell, Surrey.

Arthur E. PACKHAM. Son. 7. Scholar. Camberwell, Surrey.

Mary D. FRAISER. Visitor. S. 44. School Mistress. Nottingham, Notts.

Ada Louisa WELLS. Serv. S. 19. Domestic Servant. London.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Sat 18th March 1893

SUDDEN DEATH.---On Saturday evening Mr. W. PACKHAM, son-in-law of Mr. LONGMAN, formerly of the Ryde water-works, died very suddenly at the Union-street establishment of Mr. A. S. MARLOW. It seems that the wife of the deceased has been staying with Mrs. MARLOW, her sister, for the benefit of her health, and on Saturday Mr. PACKHAM came down to see her. He went out for a walk on the Esplanade, and when returning up Union-street, he said he felt unwell. After he arrived at Mr. MARLOW's he complained of a choking sensation. Mr. J. D. DAVIES was at once sent for, but life was gone ere he arrived. Deceased's medical man was able to certify that his demise was due to heart disease. Deceased, who lived at Buckhurst-hill, Epping Forest, was 48 years of age, was connected with a London distillery, and the firm and employes sent a lovely wreath in token of their regard and esteem.

The funeral took place at the cemetery on Wednesday. There were some 14 floral tributes. Mr. J. A. PURNELL was the undertaker.

The members of the deceased's family wish to thank many friends for their kind sympathy.
