BINSTEAD

Sudden Death of Mrs. W. PADGET.---The death occurred with painful suddenness on Sunday of Mrs. Marion PADGET, wife of Mr. Walter PADGET, of Braemar, Arnold-road. Deceased, who had suffered from heart trouble, appeared in her usual health and had been entertaining friends. Shortly after they left she collapsed and passed away in a few minutes. She was 62 years of age. She was formerly a teacher at Wakefield Cathedral School, and with her husband came to live here from Hensworth, Yorks, about four years ago. She was a member of the Women's Institute and was well-known at the Ryde Bowling Club, of which her husband is a member. With him the sincerest sympathy is felt.

The Rev. C. S. STOOKS (rector) conducted the funeral at the cemetery on Wednesday. The mourners were Mr. W. PADGET (husband), Mrs. ALLEN (sister), and the Rev. W. H. PADGET (brother-in-law). Several friends, including members of the Women's Institute, who sent a wreath, were present.

Mr. H. JAMES was the undertaker.
