ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 29th May 1958

Organist's Death. – For 25 years organist at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Mr. William PERREN, of 49 Park Road, died at Polars Guest House, Newport, on Thursday, aged 88. A native of London, he came to Ryde in 1904 and was employed by Messrs. TEAGUES, Union Street, as an organ builder and piano tuner. In the 1930's he went into business on his own account. His wife died six years ago, and he leaves two daughters and three sons.

The funeral service at St. Mary's Church on Tuesday was conducted by Father D. COGAN, assisted by Father D. McDERMOTT ROE. Mourners were Mrs. Vera DOXATT, daughter; Messrs. Leslie and Reginald PERREN, sons; Mrs. R. PERREN, daughter-in-law; and Mrs. R. DYER, grand-daughter. Mr. Roy PERREN, son, and Mrs. Irene BELL, sister, are abroad.
