

1901 CENSUS: RG13/366. Folio 19. Page 29.

Address: 17 Monarch Buildings, Marshalsea-road, Southwark, London.

John REES. Head. M. 56. Doorkeeper to Printer. Bristol, Gloucs.

Annie REES. Wife. M. 50. Hoxton, London.

John O. REES. Son. S. 27. Printer's Labourer. Clerkenwell, London.

Frederick C. REES. Son. S. 22. Printer's Labourer. Lambeth, Surrey.

Nellie REES. Dau. S. 20. Envelope Stamper. Lambeth, Surrey.

In 1911 Nellie (30) was living at 83 Brookfield Park, W., with her 1st husband William Henry DOUGHERTY (33), 2 sons William Henry (5) & Frederick John (2), and her daughter Irene Helen (under 1 mth). Her husband was listed as a Motor Cab Driver. Nellie was born Lambeth, London.

MARRIAGE: 1921 at All Saints' Church, Ryde

Albert PUGSLEY & Nellie DOUGHERTY (nee REES)

1933 REGISTER OF ELECTORS – 9 Riboleau-street, Ryde

PUGSLEY Albert

PUGSLEY Nellie

1947 REGISTER OF ELECTORS – 45 Player-street, Ryde

PUGSLEY Albert

PUGSLEY Nellie

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Sat 19th September 1953

Obituary.---The death occurred at Newport on Tuesday week of Mrs. Nellie PUGSLEY, aged 73, wife of Mr. Albert PUGSLEY, of 45 Player Street. Since coming here from London 35 years ago, she had joined the Garfield Road Methodist Sisterhood and the St. James's Women's Guild. She leaves two sons, Messrs. William and Frederick DOHERTY, the latter being in Colombo, and one daughter.

The Rev. T. J. FOINETTE officiated at the funeral at Ryde Cemetery on Saturday. The mourners were Mr. A. PUGSLEY (husband), Mr. and Mrs. W. DOHERTY (son and daughter-in-law), Mrs. A. BISHOP (step-daughter), Mr. A. BISHOP, Mrs. B. A. BLOOMFIELD, and Mrs. LEE. The Methodist Sisterhood and St. James's Women's Guild were represented and sent wreaths.

Researched by
Ann Barrett