DEATH OF MRS. A. G. PURNELL.---It is with the greatest regret that we have to announce the death of Mrs. PARNELL, wife of Mr. A. G. PURNELL, of High-street, which sad event occurred on Monday morning. The deceased was a devoted worker in connection with Holy Trinity Church (of which her husband has been the Vicar's warden for very many years), and while troops were stationed in the town she was untiring in her efforts for the soldiers' canteen associated with the parish, so much so that it was feared she undermined her health, for about a year ago she had to undergo a very serious operation, and on this followed the stunning blow, from which she never recovered, of the death of her son Stanley, who was killed in action last October. The sincerest sympathy is felt for Mr. PURNELL and the family in their irreparable loss.
