THE LATE MISS PHILLIPS. – The funeral of the late Miss Phillips, of the Terrace, Ryde, who died in London, took place on Saturday. The body was first taken to All Saints Church, where the Rev. Canon Shearme officiated, and the service was chorally rendered. The mourners were Mrs. S. F. Phillips (sister), Mr. Phillips, jun. (nephew), Miss Burroughs, and Mrs. Strange. Mr. Phillips (brother) and Miss Phillips (niece) were on the Continent and were unable to return home in time to be present. Lady Daly, Miss Knox, and Miss C. Quayle were amongst those in the church. There were many beautiful flowers. Messrs Purnell and Purnell were the undertakers.
