

1901 CENSUS: RG13/438. Folio 133. Page 10.
Address: 40 Whitely-road, Lambeth, London.

Robert H. REED. Head. Widower. 68. Musician (own account). London.

Annie L. REED. Dau. S. 43. Artist (own account). Penge, Surrey.

Arabella D. REED. Dau. S. 40. Musician (own account). Penge, Surrey.

Robert G. REED. Nephew. 9. Kennington, London.

In 1911 Arabella Dommes (50) was living at 2 St. Julien's Farm-road, W. Norwood, with her father, Robert Hopké (79) a retired musician, her sister Annie Louisa (53) an Artist (teacher), her cousin Robert George (19), and a boarder Susan PONSARD (76). Arabella was listed as a Singer (teacher).

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 26th May 1932 Page 2

MISS. A. D. REED

It is with regret that we report the death of Miss Arabella Dommes REED, aged 72, of 10, Warwick Street, which occurred at the house of her sister Miss A. REED, of 10 Warwick Street, on Monday night. Miss REED came to the town towards the end of the war and took the position of music teacher at St. Mary's Church. She was also organist at the church and retained the two positions until the commencement of her illness eight months ago. Deceased came of a well-known musical family and was a niece of Mr. German REED, the famous pre-war entertainer.

The funeral will take place on Friday morning at St. Mary's . Choral Mass will be sung at 9.30.
No flowers by request.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Kate MacDonell