

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 29th November 1934

MRS. M. E. RYALL

The death took place on Monday, at her residence, Burway, Adelaide Place, of Mrs. Mildred Elizabeth RYALL, wife of Mr. W. T. RYALL, an employee of the Ryde Gaslight Company. Mrs. RYALL who was only 38, had been ill for a considerable time, and much sympathy has been expressed with her husband in his bereavement.

The funeral service was concluded at All Saints' Church on Thursday by the Vicar, the Rev. W. Neville MARTIN, assisted by the Rev. Shirley PRICE. The interment followed at the cemetery. The family mourners were: Mr. W. T. RYALL (husband), Mr. W. R. EVANS (father), Mrs. RYALL (mother-in-law), Mr. G. J. EVANS, Mrs. MACE, and Mrs. LOVEGROVE (cousins), Mr. and Mrs. JONES, Mr. and Mrs. PERKIS, and Mr. R. F. RYALL (brother-in-law).

Others present were Messrs. W. T. GILMORE, N. CARTER, H. COMDEN, G. SLOCOMBE, O. DUNFORD, W. SMITH, W. WARRINGTON, and R. G. BARTER (representing the Ryde Gaslight Company) and Mr. T. F. BOYD (representing Ryde School).

---

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Kate MacDonell