ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thurs 10th December 1964

Miss D. K. SAUNDERS.---A well-known member of Haylands Congregational Church, Miss Doris Kathleen SAUNDERS, of "Richmond," Ashley-road, died at Fairlee Hospital last Wednesday. Miss SAUNDERS was hon. treasurer of the church and president of the Women's Guild and for many years was a teacher at the Sunday School. Born in Ryde, Miss SAUNDERS was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. SAUNDERS.

A service at Haylands Congregational Church on Monday, conducted by the Congregational Minister of Locksheath and Southampton, the Rev. Wilfred HERRINGTON, former Minister at Haylands, preceded interment at Ryde Cemetery. Mrs. Kathleen INGRAM was the organist.

Mourners included: Mr. and Mrs. K. A. SAUNDERS, and Mr. and Mrs. N. J. SAUNDERS, brothers and sisters-in-law; Miss E. G. SAUNDERS, Miss I. L. SAUNDERS and Miss Edna SAUNDERS, sisters; Mr. and Mrs. J. SMITH, cousins; Mrs. N. NEWNHAM, Mrs. D. BOARDMAN and Mrs. V. MUIR, nieces, and Mr. and Mrs. H. REASON and Miss L. EATON, friends.

Messrs. H. V. TAYLOR and Son made the arrangements.
