

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 10th August 1946

The Late Mr. C. SHAW. - The funeral of Mr. Charles SHAW, for many years gardener to Lieut.-Col. J. E. RHODES at Appley-rise, took place on Saturday, a service being held in St. John's Church. The Rev. E. T. H. ROYDS officiated and members of the British Legion, with their standard draped in crepe, formed a guard of honour at the church door. The mourners were Mrs. SHAW (widow), Mr. C. CAMPION (brother-in-law), Lieut.-Col. J. E. RHODES, Miss RHODES, Miss DRAPER, Mr. J. BARTON, Mrs. MORRIS, Mrs. MORROTT, and Mr. DRAPER (Blackwater). The members of the British Legion present were Ald. W. S. RUSSELL (chairman), Messrs. J. PRICE (standard bearer), L. BREWER, J. COGGER, C. STEARS, R. NORRIE, V. WINKLES, F. A. WEBB (also representing Mr. G. J. EVANS, T.C., branch secretary), and A. J. SHINER (British Legion club secretary). Others attending were Mrs. Percy BROWNE, J.P., Mr. Sam BROWNE, Mrs. GLENNEY, Miss Gillian BROWNE, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. PACKER, Mr. E. EMBLING, Mrs. SIEVWRIGHT, Mr. W. CHAPPELL (Bembridge), Mr. and Mrs. F. and Miss M. PLENINGER, Major E. J. COOPER, Mrs. TIMMS (also representing Mr. D. G. TIMMS), Mr. and Mrs. T. PINDER, and Mr. R. P. ADAMS. The flowers included a tribute from the British Legion.

Messrs. WHEELER Bros. made the arrangements.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Margaret Truckel