

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1024. Folio 8. Page 8.

Address: 73 George-street, Ryde, IW.

George BARTON. Head. Widr. 63. Clerk to Works Rural District Council. Wootton, IW.

Olive Jane BARTON. Dau. S. 32. Wootton, IW.

Liean DASH. Boarder. S. 21. St. Helens, IW.

Emily SHEATH. Visitor. S. 42. Whittle, IW.

In 1911 Emily (52) was living at Barton's Corner, Binstead, Nr. Ryde, as Housekeeper to a Miss Kate BARTON (39), a Teacher Council School. Emily was unmarried and her place of birth was Niton, IW.

1933 REGISTER OF ELECTORS – Bartons Corner, Binstead

SHEATH Emily

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 18th August 1938 Page 4

Deaths:-

SHEATH.- On Friday, August 12th, Emily SHEATH, aged 79, of Barton's Corner, Binstead, Ryde.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 3rd September 1938 Page 12

The Late Miss E. SHEATH,- The funeral took place on August 16th of Miss Emily SHEATH, of Barton's-corner, Newnham-road, an old and respected resident, who had lived there for some 37 years. The first part of the service was at the Methodist Church, the Revs. A. G. LLOYD and A. SMITH officiating. deceased's favourite hymn "Rock of ages" being sung. The mourners were Mr. A. SAUNDERS (nephew), Mrs. THREADGOLD (niece), Mr. and Mrs. W. and M. and Mrs. R. BOYCE, and Mrs. DIBBENS. The interment was at the cemetery and the many floral tributes included one from the Methodist Church.

Mr. H. JAMES made the arrangements.

Researched & typed by

Ann Barrett

David Harris

Kate MacDonell