

BIRTH: 1911 Ryde (IW Registrars ref: R77/E77)

Dorothy Grace SHEPPARD (Mothers maiden name WHEELER)

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 22th April 1930

A SAD BEREAVEMENT.- The deepest sympathy is felt with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. SHEPPARD, of the Wolseley Inn, Monkton-street, in the death of their daughter, Dorothy Grace, from pneumonia, after a fortnight's illness, on Thursday week. Miss SHEPPARD was just 19 years of age. She was a Sunday-school teacher at Holy Trinity Church and a popular member of the Girl's Social Club.

The funeral service took place on Tuesday at the church, when both these organisations were represented. The Rev. Noel H. STUBBS officiated. Mr. A. P. JAMES was at the organ and "Jesu, Lover of my soul" was sung. The mourners were the bereaved parents, Messrs. W. and E. SHEPPARD (brothers), Mrs. VICKERY, Mrs. J. WHEELER, and Miss S. WHEELER (aunts), Miss N. BEAN and Miss M. SELF. The interment was at the Cemetery. Over 30 beautiful wreaths were placed on the grave, including tokens from the Holy Trinity Sunday-school and Social Club, and the bouquet carried by Mrs. LOCKE (a fellow Sunday-school teacher), who was married at Trinity Church on Monday. Messrs.

WHEELER Bros. were the undertakers.

From the Book RYDE PUBS by Kevin Mitchell (1996) page 182 with photo

Wolseley Tavern, 55 Monkton-street, Ryde, IW.

Opened as a beerhouse called Wolseley around 1855, it was one of the few Ryde pubs to sell Burts Beers from the brewery in Ventnor. It closed in 1932.

Also from the book RYDE PUBS by Tony Gale (2011)

Granted a full license and owned by Sweetmans. Sold to Mew Langtons in 1921

Researched & typed by

Ann Barrett

Kate MacDonell