DEATH AND FUNERAL OF MR. DAVID SMITH.---A well-known and highly-respected resident passed away on Firday last in the person of Mr. David SMITH, of The Lodge, Appley (now the Convent of St. Cecilia), who had for 53 years been the gardener there. He commenced with the Hyde family in 1852 and terminated this length of service with the Rev. W. G. WHITTAM, when the I.W. College ceased to exist, and the property was sold to the present occupiers. Mr. SMITH who was a man of many estimable qualities, was well-known as a judge at the horticultural shows of 25 years ago.

The funeral took place on Monday at St. John's Cemetery, the Rev. J. A. WILSON officiating. The mourners were the deceased's eldest son, Mr. Walter SMITH; Mr. Sidney SMITH, wife and daughter; Mr. J. LINDSAY (nephew); Miss CARNE, Mrs. MUSSELL; and Mr. Alfred A. TUTTE. Many friends and acquaintances of the deceased were also present.

Tributes of flowers were sent by the following: The family, Mrs. Carr TATE, Mrs. William GIBBS, Mrs. C. HARDING, (N.B.), C. A. CARNE and the Misses BERESFORD, Mrs. WHITE and Mrs. MUSSELL, the family of the late Mr. HAIR, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. TUTTE, Mabel E. WAITE, Mr. and Mrs. BATTENBURY, Mr. and Mrs. James BATCHELOR, Mr. and Mrs. STANBURY, "Freda," Mr. and Mrs. HAIR, and the Rev. W. G. WHITTAM.

Messrs. COOMBES were the undertakers.
