MRS F. SPELT

The funeral of Mrs Florence SPELT took place at the Congregational Church, Ryde, on Friday.

Mrs. SPELT who was 81, was the widow of a former postmaster of Ryde, Mr. John SPELT. After occupying that position in the town for about 10 years, Mr. SPELT moved to a similar post at Dorking in 1907. His widow returned to Ryde on his death in 1919. Mrs. SPELT was a former member of the Philharmonic Society and of the Congregational Church Choir.

The Rev. J.H. COX officiated at the service, interment following beside her two children at the Ryde Cemetery.

Miss FILSELL was present at the service. Miss BEVIS (niece) being unable to attend.
