THE LATE MRS STANFELL.- The funeral of the late Mrs STANFELL, widow of the late Captain STANFELL, R.N. took place at Ryde Cemetery, on Tuesday morning. The coffin, which was of English oak with massive brass mountings, was conveyed to the Cemetery in a hearse, six mourning carriages also following. The whole of the burial service, with the exception of the final prayer, was performed in the Cemetery Chapel, the Rev T. W. FAIR officiating. The chief mourners were Colonel CRADOCK (son-in-law), Mr C. FORBES, of The Castle, Mr CRADOCK, Mr E. RATCLIFFE; the servants also attended. Many lovely wreaths and crosses were placed upon the grave. A beautiful wreath of violets was "from her sorrowing children and grandson," wreaths from Mrs and Miss BURNSIDE, Mr Jaspar H. LIVINGSTONE, "from Mary to her dear sister," Mr and Mrs W. E. RATCLIFFE, "from Minnie," Mr CRADOCK, "Evelyn A DUNSMURE," Mrs George Maclean, "from her affectionate servants," the servants at Denvilles (who sent a splendid cross), the servants at The Castle, and others.

The whole of the arrangements were ably carried out by Messrs COOMBES, of Cross Street.
