

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 21st March 1935

MR. E. E. TAYLOR

Much sympathy has been expressed with the relatives of Mr. Edward Ernest TAYLOR, of 20 Player Street, who passed away at the County Hospital on Friday after a painful illness patiently borne. Mr. TAYLOR, who was 51, was for many years employed by Messrs. WHITTINGTON, builders and decorators, of Lake, and his colleagues will miss his genial and cheerful presence. Many will remember him as a member of the old Isle of Wight Volunteers, with whom he served for six years. On the outbreak of the Great War he joined the Colours and served in the Hampshire Regiment until after the Armistice. He leaves a widow and daughter to mourn his loss, and a particularly sad feature of his passing is that his mother, now an octogenarian, has lost four of her five sons.

The funeral takes place today (Thursday), the service being at All Saints; Church at 2.45 p.m. prior to the interment at Ryde Cemetery.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Kate MacDonell