

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1023. folio 11. page 14.
Address: Bellvue, Binstead-road, Binstead, IW.

Mary Eleanor DAVIS. Head. Wid. 65. Living on own means. Calcutta, India.
Florence Maude TEMPLETON. Cousin. S. 45. Living on own means. Calcutta, India.
Eliza WOOLDRIDGE. Serv. S. 30. Domestic Servant. Parmers, IW.

In 1911 Florence was living at Marine Duver, Ryde, with her two cousins. Her status was Living on own means.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 20th May 1926 Page 2

THE LATE MISS TEMPLETON

The Rev. G. C. RUBIE of Christ Church, Harrow Road. W., the late incumbent of St. James's, paid a special visit to Ryde on Monday when he officiated at the funeral of Miss TEMPLETON a greatly respected parishioner and church worker and who gave the lectern to the church. A service was held at St. James's which was largely attended. There was a number of beautiful wreaths. Messrs. PURNELL had charge of the funeral arrangements.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 22nd May 1926 Page 8

FUNERAL OF MISS TEMPLETON

The funeral of Miss Florence Maude TEMPLETON, whose death at the age of 68 occurred at her house, Loudon House, Belvedere-street, on May 12, took place on Monday. The Rev. G. C. RUBIE, formerly incumbent, officiated at the first part of the service at St. James's Church, of the congregation of which church Miss TEMPLETON has been a much-respected member for many years. The Rev. R. S. EDDLESTONE assisted, and among the mourners were Mesdames PHILLIPS (niece), PARRY, GOLDSWORTH, and G.C. RUBIE, the Misses NOBLE, DAMBTILL, and BUTTERFIELD, and Messrs. James ELDRIDGE, Claude E. SMITH, and J. C. GRACE, and Dr. PRIDMORE.

The arrangements were carried out by Messrs. PURNELL and PURNELL.
