DEATH OF MRS. J. TOMS

A resident of nearly 50 years standing passed away on Wednesday, at the age of 81, in the person of Mrs. TOMS, of Pellhurst-road. She was the widow of Mr. Joseph TOMS, whose voluntary work for the Sailors and Soldiers Families Association will be remembered by many.

Mrs. TOMS chief interest was in the branch of the British Union for the Abolition of Vivisection, of which her only son, Mr. A. Maurice TOMS, is president. She resigned the post of hon treasurer at the last annual meeting. Mrs. TOMS was a direct descendant of Gen. Richmond WEBB, for a short period Governor of the Island, who figures prominently in Thackeray's "Henry Esmond."
