ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 20th October 1917 page 8

DEATH OF MR. G. J. TURNER.- With much regret we have to chronicle the death of Mr. George James TURNER at his residence, Ingledene, Bellevue-road, on Saturday night. He was one of the oldest tradesman in the town, having carried on the business of an oil and colour dealer in the High-street, which he established some fifty years ago. Although 73 years of age, he was able until quite recently to give that personal attention to his business which had secured for him the confidence and respect of those he served. In his younger days the deceased was a noted athlete and was well known as one of the fastest sprinters in the South of England. He assisted in the provision of fireworks at local regattas.

The funeral took place on Thursday, the first part of the service being held at Holy Trinity Church, the Vicar (the Rev. J. E. EDDIS, M.A., R.D.) officiating. The mourners included the widow, Mr. C. TURNER (son), the two daughters, Mrs. C. TURNER and Mrs. E. TURNER (daughters-in-law), Miss BEVIS, Miss STEWARD, Messrs. E. A. KING, H. G. JOLLIFFE, F. C. CHEESEWRIGHT, and S. H. V. BONNER, &c. Among those at the church were Ald. H. SWEETMAN, J.P., Capt. and Mrs. STANNEY, Messrs. J. JOHNCOX, W. H. LONG, C. W. JACKMAN, A. J. T. BLACKMORE, E. J. WHEELER and Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. FRIESTLY, and others. There were many floral tributes.

The funeral arrangements were entrusted to Mr. E. CHANDLER.
