

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 23rd November 1889

DEATH OF AN OLD INHABITANT.- We regret to record the death of Miss TURTLE, of Union-street, sister of our respected townsman, Mr. E. TURTLE, of Union-street. The deceased lady lived with her brother, and their affection and attachment were remarkable. It seems, however, that about eight weeks ago, Mr. TURTLE was taken ill, and was ordered to Buxton for a change of air. During his absence Miss TURTLE became ill, and Mr. TURTLE only received the intelligence of her condition in time to reach Ryde and see her just before her death. It must be a great shock to him, and we feel sure he has received many evidences of the sympathy of his fellow townsmen.
