DEATH OF MISS SHEILA TUTTE. – Deep sympathy was felt with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. W. TUTTE, of Eversley, Queen’s-road, in the severe bereavement they have been called upon to bear by the death of their elder daughter, Sheila, on Sunday at the early age of 10 years. Never a robust child, Sheila succumbed to an illness of three weeks’ duration. During her very short life she had suffered a good deal from in-different health, but the wonderful patience and fortitude she displayed and the simple charm and sweetness of her character endeared her to everyone with whom she came into contact. For a short time she was a pupil of the Convent of the Cross, where she was much beloved by both staff and scholars.

The funeral was on Tuesday, the first part of the service being held at St. Mary’s Roman Catholic Church. Canon S. MONGAN, D.D., officiated, and the chief mourners were Mr. and Mrs. TUTTE (parents), Sir Henry SWEETMAN, J.P. (grandfather), and Mrs. HALSTED and Miss TUTTE (aunts). The Rev. C. B. and Mrs. ATYEO (uncle and aunt) were unavoidably prevented from attending. Among others present were Capt. H. A. DRUDGE (representing Capt. P. D. MACDONALD, M.P.), Ald. A. F. WRIGHT, Father STUART, Messrs. FRY and F. FORER, Mrs. DOHERTY, Mrs. H. ALSOP, and Mrs. F. G. TURNER. Sheila’s fellow pupils were also present to pay their last token of respect. After the service they quietly filed out of the church in charge of Mother CALLANAN (mistress general) and Mother BOLTON, and followed the cortege to the Cemetery, where the interment took place.
