ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 19th January 1933

MISS L. B. UNDERHILL

We regret to announce the passing of Miss Lucy Blanch UNDERHILL, which took place at her residence, 28, Monkton-Street, late on Sunday evening. Miss UNDERHILL was well-known in the town, and had been in business as a fancy draper for many years in Cross-Street, until she retired in 1925. A great worker for the Brothers who meet in Abingdon-Road Room, the passing of Miss UNDERHILL will be keenly felt by many friends. She was a grand daughter of the late Rev. Charles CAKEBREAD, of Lake-Road Baptist Chapel, Portsea. The deceased lady who was only taken ill a week before she died, was aged 72.

The burial takes place to-day (Thursday) at 2.30 at the Cemetery .
