

The Late Mr. C. VALVONA. - As briefly reported last week, Mr. Carmine (Charlie) VALVONA, aged 54, died suddenly at his home, Flat 4, 18, Belvedere Street, on Friday week. A son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. VALVONA, of Upton, he was born in the town and was a lifelong resident with the exception of his service with the Gloucestershire Regiment in Holland and Germany during the last war. Fr. R. HENDRY celebrated requiem Mass on Wednesday at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, where the coffin was received the previous evening. The mourners were Mrs. VALVONA (widow), Messrs. A. and J. VALVONA (sons), Mr. and Mrs. J. VALVONA and Mr. A. VALVONA (brothers and sister-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. R. COQUIO and Mr. and Mrs. P. COTTON (brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law), Miss A. COQUIO (niece) and Mr. and Mrs. J. VALVONA, Mr. and Mrs. A. VALVONA, Mr. and Mrs. P. VALVONA, Mr. and Mrs. T. VALVONA, Mr. L. VALVONA, the Misses V. and M. VALVONA and Mesdames A. GRIMES and Y. SIMPSON (cousins). The Priory, Nettlestone, was represented and sent a wreath, other floral tributes including one from the New Inn, St. John's Road. Interment was at Binstead Cemetery.

Messrs. H. V. TAYLOR and Son made the arrangements.
