ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Sat 1st March 1890

OBITUARY.---Many of the visitors to Ryde will miss a familiar face next season---that of Mr. Albert VANNER, the well-known coach proprietor, who died on Sunday last. Mr. VANNER belonged to an old Isle of Wight family, and had been connected with coaches and busses all his life. He died, after a short illness, from congestion of the lungs, at the early age of 47.

The funeral took place on Thursday.

NB: We have noted that, although it states on the 1881 census that Caroline Hollis was 'Grandmother', she was actually the mother of Mary.
