MARRIAGE: 1917 Wesleyan Chapel, Regent-street, Shanklin
Reginald Thomas VINE & Ada Nellie LONG

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 28th April 1928

DEATH OF MRS. VINE.- The death took place at No. 1 Wingfield-villas, West-street, on Monday, after a short illness, of Mrs. Ada Nellie VINE, the wife of Mr. Reginald T. VINE, and third daughter of the late Mr. F. T. LONG, of Calbourne. For 10 years deceased had been a valued and active worker on behalf of the Wesleyan Church, being a member of the choir and a teacher in the Sunday-school. In all that church's activities she took her part, and she will now be greatly missed.

The funeral took place on Thursday, the first part of the service being held at the Wesleyan Church. The Rev. W. SEED, who officiated, assisted by the Rev. A. TRIGGS, spoke feelingly of the loss which the bereaved family and the church has been called upon to bear, and referred to her many good qualities. The choir, led the singing of the hymn "Lead us, heavenly Father," and Mr. E. TOPP (the organist) played "O rest in the Lord." There was a large attendance at the service, a testimony to the esteem and respect in which Mrs. VINE was held, the churches in the Ryde circuit being well represented. The interment was at the Cemetery. The mourners were the husband, Mrs. YEARSLEY (sister), Mr. H. C. VINE and Mr. A. H. YEARSLEY (brothers-in-law), and Messrs. O. A. HAYLES (Great Appleford Farm), E. HAYLES (Pagham Farm), and E. A. VINCENT, of Ventnor (cousins). The large number of beautiful flowers included wreaths from the Wesleyan choir and Sunday-school, the deceased's class in the Sunday-school, the local preachers' meeting, the St. Helens and Seaview Wesleyan Sunday-school.

Mr. E. JAMES, of Binstead, was the undertaker.
