

In 1911 Ella Violet VIVIAN (46) was living at Beaufort, Partlands Avenue, Ryde, with her sister Ethel Maud VIVIAN (47), a visitor ? BUCKLEY (49), a nephew Ralph VIVIAN (15) and 2 servants, Minnie SALISBURY (19) and Agnes MONK (14). Ella Violet was living on private means. Her birthplace was Limerick, Ireland.

1931 IW TIMES DIRECTORY of Ryde & District – pages 58 & 160
VIVIAN Ella Violet, “Pans Garden” 28 Queens-road, Ryde, IW.

1933 REGISTER OF ELECTORS – 28 Queen’s-road, Ryde
VIVIAN Ella Violet

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 22nd November 1933

Death Notice:

VIVIAN. – Nov. 20. At “Pan’s Garden,” Queen’s Road. Violet VIVIAN.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 22nd November 1933

MISS V. VIVIAN

It is with regret that we report the death of Miss Violet VIVIAN, which occurred late on Tuesday night at her home, “Pan’s Garden,” Queen’s Road. Miss VIVIAN had been ill for some months. She came to Ryde to live about 20 years ago and for the latter half of that period had been a member of All Saints’ Church.

The funeral will take place to-morrow (Friday) at 3 p.m. at All Saints’ Church.

NB: We have noted a discrepancy with the death date, the newspaper states 20th Nov, but all other records state 21st Nov.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Jenny Stay
Val Minns