MISS M. WALLS

The funeral took place at Ryde Parish Church on Thursday, of Miss Mollie Barbara WALLS, aged 19, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George WALLS, of 18 Swanmore Road, Ryde. Miss WALLS was deservedly very popular among a wide circle of friends.

The service was conducted by the Rev. A. C. DURHAM, R.D., assisted by the Rev. F. H. ROLPH, the former accompanying at the organ the hymn "On the Resurrection morning."

The mourners were Mr. and Mrs. G. WALLS (parents of Miss WALLS), Aircraftman R. WALLS (brother), Mrs. M. GRIST and Miss I. WALLS (sisters), Mr. S. GRIST (brother-in-law), Mr. R. WALLS (uncle), Mrs. R. WALLS (sister-in-law), Mr. W. BOWDEN, Mr. HITCHES, Miss BOLSHER, and Miss LANE (representing Messrs. SAUNDERS- ROE, where Miss WALLS was employed). members of the staff of this firm acted as bearers of her coffin. Trooper R. J. WILCOX (husband of Mrs. WILCOX), Mrs. AYLING (sister-in-law), Mrs. LANE (sister-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. A. LANE (brother and sister-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. R. WHITE and Miss F. BUFTON were the other mourners. The Mayor (Mr. H. W. O. WEEKS), Alderman W. S. RUSSELL and Councillors H. P. CHIVERTON, A. E. SMITH and A. H. WOOD were present as a token of the Corporation's sympathy.

Interred in the same grave as Miss WALLS were her aunt (Mrs. Mabel Ivy WILCOX, wife of Trooper Reginald WILCOX and their two infant children, Douglas Reginald (aged 17 months) and Brian John (aged 11 weeks).
