ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Sat 11th November 1893

DEATH OF MR. H. WAYLAND

We much regret to record the death, on Thursday evening, of Mr. H. WAYLAND, the proprietor of the Isle of Wight Times. Mr. WAYLAND had been suffering for some months from jaundice. He had been away for treatment and change of air, but the alteration in his appearance on his return alarmed his friends in the town, and the news of his death will not surprise those who have seen him.

Mr. WAYLAND commenced business in Ryde many years ago as a printer and stationer, and started the Isle of Wight Times. Although of a retiring disposition, and taking no part in public matters, Mr. WAYLAND was generally respected by his fellow townsmen, and the news of his death will be received with general regret. It is a singular coincidence that the two newspaper proprietors of the town ---Mrs. BUTLER and Mr. WAYLAND ---should have passed away in the same year.
