Death of Mr. A. E. WEEKS.---Mr. Albert Edward WEEKS, aged 84, died after a short illness at Selwyn, High Street, Oakfield, on Wednesday week. A native of Sandown, he had spent almost the whole of his life here, being employed for about 40 years in the coal trade. Previously he lived for a few years at Birmingham. His wife died four years ago, and one son and five daughters survive him.

The Vicar (the Rev. A. J. PEARMAN) officiated at the funeral service at St. John's Church on Saturday, and at the interment at Ryde Cemetery. The mourners were Mr. and Mrs. O. F. WEEKS (son and daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. H. B. WESCOMB (son-in-law and daughter), Mrs. E. M. SPRACK, Miss W. L. WEEKS, amd Mrs. G. PEGG (daughters), Messrs. G. and D. PEGG (grandsons), Mrs. WILSON, Mrs. COOKE, and Miss Gwenda PEGG (grand-daughters), Mr. and Mrs. F. WEEKS (brother and sister-in-law), Mrs. A. DUNFORD (sister), Mr. A. DUNFORD (nephew), Mr. A. LACEY, Mr. and Mrs. W. READ, and Mr. F. S. COTTRELL. Mrs. J. READ (daughter) of Birmingham, was unable to attend through ill-health. There were 30 floral tributes, including one from the indoor and outdoor staffs of WOOD and JOLLIFFE, Ltd.
